John Weaver, Fitzgerald, Georgia pastor, speaks across the country on theology, economics, history, constitutionalism, civil government and practical Christian obedience. An expositor of God's entire Word, Pastor Weaver's preaching style is in the tradition of those early Colonial patriot pastors whose pulpits were the cradle of America's liberty.

Eric Hovind, Eric has been ministering for Creation Science Evangelism since 1999. Eric's passion for the creation message and its evangelistic opportunities lend excitement to every message he gives. Having traveled to all fifty states and five foreign countries, Eric is well qualified to debate, teach, and minister the mighty power of God in creation.

Sheriff Richard Mack, former sheriff of Graham County, Arizona, was the first sheriff in the country to file a lawsuit against the Clinton administration to stop the intrusiveness associated with the Brady Bill. Mack's case won a landmark decision on the issue of state's rights and local sovereignty. He is an author and consultant on government abuse and tyranny.

Adam Brink, holds a Bachelor's degree in finance and is a licensed CPA. He is currently enrolled in the Master of Divinity program at the North American Reformed Seminary. Adam's research on the Reformation and resistance to tyranny will enlighten the most seasoned history buffs.
